

Turbo Coaching™ Skill Drill

With “Jimmy Z”

How To Get The Very Most Out of This Conference

This session is an awesome way to warm up the crowd and set a motivational high-energy context for your conference! “Jimmy Z” rallies the Team to generate an open mind, a ton of positive energy and a willingness to stretch their comfort zone. They are compelled to not just make the most of the conference here, but to set a course for how they will relentlessly improve their efforts back in the field where it counts! There are great Icebreakers for them to bond as a Team with energy that then sets the pace. He also introduces Accelerated Learning Techniques and Promise Cards™ to capture Hot Tips, Best Practices, To Do's and key content from the conference so they can start their Action Plan immediately and hit the ground running once they get back!

Out of this Skill Session You Will Learn:

- ◆ Through a fun and interactive icebreaker exercise you learn how your “Physiology” speaks louder than your words, and how you can use your physiology to create even greater levels of rapport and relationship with your Team.
- ◆ The 3 Things You Need To Get The Most Out Of The Conference:
  1. An Open Mind – Tied into Promise Cards™ – Capturing their Best Ideas & Action Plan Cards
  2. A Willingness To Stretch Your Comfort Zone – Tied into taking action and networking ideas
  3. The Willingness To Generate Yourself and Increase Your Energy Levels – Tied into a State Management Anchor used throughout the event to keep the energy high and enjoyable.
- ◆ How To Capture The Best Ideas and Actions From The Conference On Promise Cards™ to maximize the value to be taken from the conference and carry it over into action in the marketplace where it counts!
- ◆ How To Kick Up Your “State” Of Mind At Will to generate greater learning and enjoyment of the conference, by asking better questions and managing you physiology to support yourself and your Team.

Duration: 30 - 90 minutes depending on logistics and need.
